announce the Competition for

THE PRIZE of the PONTIFICAL ACADEMIES 2020

As foreseen by the Regulation for the Prize and in agreement with the Pontifical Council for Culture, the Pontifical Roman Academy of Archaeology and the Pontifical Academy “Cultorum Martyrum” announce the Competition for the Prize of the Pontifical Academies 2020 (an award of 20,000 Euros), awarded by the Holy Father during the annual Public Session of the Pontifical Academies.

The competition is open to religious or lay institutions and young scholars (maximum 35 years of age) whose research or activity contributes significantly to the development of the historical religious sciences and Christian humanism.

The works proposed must have as their area of research Christian Archaeology, Church History and the Cult of the Martyrs.

Candidates' work should be presented in two copies and can be unpublished works (Doctoral Theses) or works published in the last five years. Institutions should send two copies of a project or research direction already underway.

Those participating should send their materials to the address below by 30 April 2020 together with a curriculum vitae of the author or information sheet about the Institution.

Further precise information may be requested from the Secretariats of the two Academies.

From the Vatican, 20 January 2020
